Mrs. Patricia N. Edwards
1765 Silverado Trail
Napa, Calif. 94558.

Dear Patricia:

Am enclosing the material you requested on Hezekiah Billingsley that you requested. Also material on his father, also named Hezekiah.

I presume you will consolidate these into a brief sketch and I feel it important to have some ancestral background.

This will also give you a little information on the Lang family of Wayne County, Ms., children of William Lang of Chesterfield Dist., S. C.

This material is from 'The Billingsley Family in America', publ. 1936 by Harry Alexander Davis and reproduced in 1983.

You seem to have an ambitious project in hand- wish you luck- and hope this little bit will be of some help.

Sincerely,

Robert M. Richardson

54 HEZEKIAH (6) BILLINGSLEY

(John 5, Bowles 4, William 5, John 2, Francis 1.) Born Charles County, Maryland in 1758. He enlisted and served as Corporal, Captain John Thomas' Company, Charles County Militia in 1778, War of Revolution, he signed the Oath of Allegiance 1778 Charles County, Maryland on Return of Joseph Anderson. (Md. Records Mass.) He married in 1783 Rebecca Thomas, born Maryland 176—, daughter of John Thomas who was residing in Dorchester County, Maryland at the time but formerly of Charles County. He was devised by his father in 1785 certain land. He deeded 230 $\frac{1}{2}$ acres of land called "Whitsun Mandy," in Charles County, to John Morton of Prince George County, Maryland 25 Feb. 1793, Rebecca waived dower. (Deeds Lib. N^o 4, fol. 65.) They moved to Richmond County, North Carolina shortly afterwards where he evidently owned land but no deeds to show how obtained. He dated his will March 1795, the estate to be kept together for support of wife and children until they severally come of age or marry; when the oldest son comes of lawful age or marries executors to choose three freeholders to equally divide and lot off to four children, i.e. John, Sophia, Hezekiah, and Elizabeth, the real estate. Executors to sell one slave and purchase land for support of wife, Rebecca, and at her death same to be sold and proceeds divided equally among the four children.

Executors named were, wife, Rebecca, during her widowhood, and brother John Billingsley; son, John Billingsley to be one of the executors when he comes of lawful age. Witnessed by Walter Leak and Joseph Ingram. This will was probated October 1795. Rebecca appears to have been deceased prior to 1820.

55 CLEMENT (6) BILLINGSLEY

(John 5, Bowles 4, William 3, John 2, Francis 1.) Born St. Mary's County, Maryland in 1761, moved to Charles County, Maryland with his parents. He and his brother, James, were legatees to land, jointly, in the will of their father in 1785. He married in 1786 Eleanor Warren born Charles County, Maryland 17—. They migrated to Fauquier County, Virginia about 1791. On 25 February 1793 Clement and James Billingsley decided to John Billingsley, of Charles County, Maryland and called "Barton's Hope & Additions" in said County devised to said James and Clement by their father, John Billingsley, by will 8 February 1783, Eleanor, wife of said Clement, waived dower. (Deeds Lib. N4, fol. 30.) Clement died in 1796, inventory of his estate dated 24 October 1796, James Billingsley administrator. Eleanor married (2) Jeremiah Pepper, 1792, she appears to be the second wife of said Pepper. He died in 1812 final returns on his estate dated 24 March 1813. James Billingsley died in 1800 and Ira Pepper was made administrator, de bonis non, for estate of Clement Billingsley and Jeremiah Pepper made guardian for the children. Final settlement made on 27 February 1804. Eleanor was living in 1831. Of the six Pepper children listed the last three are probably children of the second marriage. They do not carry any Billingsley blood.
